Re: WJCA, Inc. v. Tailored Brands, Inc. et al., 1:19-cv-09501-LJL
Consent Request for Adjournment of Initial Pretrial Conference set for March 20, 2020

Dear Judge Liman:

This is a letter-motion for adjournment filed in accordance with Local Civil Rules 7.1(d) and 5.2(b). All parties consent to the requested adjournment.

This action is set for an Initial Pretrial Conference on March 20, 2020. The parties have conferred and wish to adjourn that appearance until May 7, 2020, or as soon thereafter as is convenient for the Court. The purpose of this seven-week adjournment is to allow the parties to engage in settlement discussions. Although the parties had hoped those discussions would already be well underway, a key principal of the defendants has been on leave for a significant period of time to attend to a personal issue. Additionally, the parties have been working to secure the participation of a non-party in the discussions, and that process has taken some time. The parties genuinely wish to explore settlement opportunities before incurring further litigation expenses and maintain a genuine belief that this adjournment will be beneficial. The parties have already begun exchanging dates for the discussions.

No party has previously requested any adjournment of the Initial Pretrial Conference, and no other appearances are pending in this matter.

Sincerely,

Jonathan R. Shulan, appearing pro hac vice
